VOL. 13 NO. 43 WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1972.

Third Reading Given Grandin Zoning Area

Two bylaws were dealt with at the regular meeting of council, Bylaw 34/72 covering the purchase of heavy equipment was passed in second and third reading. The other bylaw, 48/72 which came up for public hearing met with some opposition because of the zoning issue. The bylaw deals with the rezoning of three plots of land lying South of Highway 2 and West of Edmonton Road, being within the Grandin Subdivision.

The applicant for rezoning from Agricultural to R3- (multiple family) and RIC (residential one family) is Belvedere Developments Ltd. and Integrated Building Corp. Ltd. of Edmonton. Present to speak on the proposed development and in defence of the opposition being brought to bear was Armand Donais, prominent local developer. Opposition to the zoning bylaw were owners of land lying adjacent to the proposed development project, an area of land measuring about 24 acres.

The petitioners contesting the zoning application claim their land will become isolated if the rezoning application is granted and further anticipate access problems when the proposed ring road becomes a reality. Mr. Donais explained that his firm's proposed development will not isolate the adjacent land, in fact he expressed willingness to review the whole situation again with the owners of the land in question and study future development plans.

Members of Council explained to the petitioners that the proposed ring road has not yet been designated but when it is, provisions will have to be made to ensure that the 24-acres under question shall not end up in a position of isolation. After the hearing adjourned, second and third readings were given the rezoning bylaw.

With the bylaw passed in third reading, Belvedere integrated will now enter in a development agreement with the town, dealing with details involving the proposed three-phase development area.

Chamber Sponsors Political Forum

The Political Open Forum held at Club Mocombo last Thursday under the auspices of the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce drew quite an enthusiastic crowd of about 150 citizens.

Purpose of the open forum was to give all four candidates contesting in the Edmonton West constituency an opportunity to dialogue with local voters and stand ready for a question and answer period.

Present to expound on their respective platforms were: Hurtig, Mel (Liberal); Lambert, Marcel (Progressive Conservative); McLeod, Don (Social Credit) and Packer, John (New Democratic Party). President of the Chamber of Commerce, Gerry Belke chaired the forum.

First to speak was incumbent Marcel Lambert who touched briefly on sensitive points the Progressive Conservative Party is concerned with. The high rate of unemployment was deplored by the PC statesman with a promise to do something about it 'when we go back to Ottawa'. Mr. Lambert also touched on the embarrassing situation facing military personnel anticipating retirement.

"These members of our armed forces," Mr. Lambert said, "devote their lives to a military career designed for the defence of Canada, then once these people reach the age of 45 years of age plus, they're cast aside and expected to live on a paltry beggar's pension." He continued to explain this inequality in human dignity by revealing that ex-military personnel have to return to the labor force in order to supplement their meagre pension. "This is a sensitive point with my party," Mr. Lambert said, "and we propose to do something about that too."

John Packer, NDP candidate took a strip off the 'old line parties' and especially gave Mel Hurtig, the Liberal candidate, a hard time. "I can't see why Mr. Hurtig is so busy trying to re-write the principles of Liberalism," Mr. Packer said, "because we in the NDP have exactly what Mr. Hurtig is looking for."

Don McLeod, the Social

Credit candidate referred to the 'old liners' as peddling horse manure and predicted that within 18 months another federal election would have to be held at which time he predicted the Socialists would form the government of Canada.

Mr. Hurtig, the maverick Liberal candidate admitted that his Liberal philosophy was not entirely compatible with the Trudeau philosophy. "However," Mr. Hurtig said "I do have quite a following within the Liberal hierarchy and if I'm elected, we shall have a good strong voice in the Liberal caucus."

Before the open forum terminated, the audience was invited to field questions at any of the four candidates. One question which highlighted that period was the abortion issue. All four candidates voiced strong opposition to the concept of "abortion on demand."

Schroeder Elected Chairman

Trustee C. Schroeder was elected chairman of the Separate School Board Wednesday night, succeeding J. Wiltshire, who has just completed his term of office. W. Penrose was re-elected vice-chairman for another term.

Mr. Schroeder has announced that existing chairmen of the various working committees will continue functioning according to existing rules and regulations until he has had time to implement changes.

The increased enrolment this term, from 2,616 as of June 30, 1972 to 2,897 September 30, 1972 is causing some concern to teachers and the administrative staff. The ATA sub-local has also expressed its concern to the No. 6 School Board.

The significant area problem is related directly to the larger enrolment which has brought many classrooms over the prescribed maximums. The Separate School Board's policy says simply that classrooms should not exceed 30 pupils in all grades excepting Grade 1 where the maximum has been set at 25 pupils. This present school term shows the entire Separate School System operating at near-capacity or over.

For example, out of eight Grade 1 classrooms, five are over-subscribed. Classrooms in Grades 6, 7 and 8 are operating at full capacity while Grade 9 classrooms have from 31 to 34 students per room. This situation will be somewhat relieved once the new Paul Kane High School is opened sometime in February 1973.

Once the new school be-

comes operative several factors will come into play, one important point is the expected change in enrolment after the present semester ends. Another factor is the immediate destiny of the Lorne Akins School (the present Paul Kane). At the moment the 281 additional students attending No. 6 District have been absorbed with only an increase of three teachers to the staff.

A great idea! Spook Insurance

For the second consecutive year, citizens of St. Albert can buy an extra special insurance policy for only a dollar. The policy offers protection from witches, warlocks, spooks, goblins and all manner of immortal spirits permitted by the Great Pumpkin to walk the earth on Halloween night next Tuesday. Minor tricks, using soap, eggs, tomatoes and other pranks of goblins need cause no inconvenience if you have a Spook Insurance Policy. Just telephone 599-9022 between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m. the next day and a young "mover" will be around to put the damage right. If you don't see a mover before Tuesday, order your policy by phone - 599-6324.

Monte Cannon of St. Albert Movers exchanges a dollar bill for a "Spook Insurance" policy with Ernie Jamison. When it comes time for Monte to get out the window brush and make good on the policy, he'll probably still have the smile. It's all for the good of the Coffee House and other help for the young people of St. Albert.

McDonnell Heads Zone 2

At the Alberta School Trustees' Association annual meeting held last Thursday at the Saxony Motor Inn, several local school trustees were elected to positions of prominence in the association.

Chairman of the Sturgeon School Division No. 24, John McDonnell was elected chairman of Zone 2 of the ASTA. Mr. McDonnell succeeds Bill Penrose, trustee of the St. Albert Separate School District No. 6 who was elected zone representative to the ASTA executive. Al Cannon, trustee of No. 3 Public School District was elected to represent Zone 7 while Dr. W. Cuts, trustee of No. 6 District was elected representative of the Independent Districts within the zone.

Zone 2 includes 33 school districts, divisions and counties in the area which includes that territory North of the North Saskatchewan River to the Athabasca River and East to West almost the entire width of the province of Alberta.

Hon. Hugh M. Horner, Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Alberta qualifies his endorsement of Dan Hollands, PC candidate for Pembina this way: "Dan Hollands is an excellent choice to represent the people of Pembina in Ottawa. Because of his agricultural background, he has a real understanding of rural Alberta and will, therefore, work to avoid the pit formulas applied by easterners to western Canadian agricultural problems. After all, he, along with the rest of Alberta farmers and livestock men, has been the victim of these formulas in the past. Having known and worked with Dan Hollands since 1957, and having found him a conscientious worker, a sympathetic listener and a helpful adviser, I heartily endorse him as the candidate to elect in the October 30th federal election."

Around Town

NDP candidate for Edmonton West John Packer will be doing a bit of last-minute hand-shaking here at Grandin Shoppers Park Friday evening and Saturday morning. The Packer team completely saturated the St. Albert area last Sunday with a Packer Backer, a newspaper-type of flyer the NDP candidate published during the campaign. The Packer Backer explains in laymen terms New Democratic Party philosophies. The John Packer team which invaded St. Albert numbered 24 people.

Reports from all sides indicate that everybody had a ball at Bavarian Night. Ron Malek and Gord Smithson were among the prize winners and the Hospital Auxiliary are confident that they can help out Administrator Cliff Keyes quite substantially with the next item on his priority equipment list. By the way Ron got flowers and Gord got two boos.

All members of Town Council, including chief administrator Dan O'Connell will be on deck in Lethbridge this week for the 66th Annual Convention of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association. This is a four-day event scheduled to terminate Friday, Oct. 27. We have no way of knowing for sure at the time of printing but we understand that all members of our council will be sporting matched, well co-ordinated suits, excepting Councillor J. J. Bakker who professes to be a non-conformist. Soon as Mayor Gibbon and all six councillors return from their Lethbridge convention The Gazette will attempt to photograph our "well-clad" council, including Councillor Bakker.

AROUND TOWN

A good time is in store for all citizens of St. Albert and District Sunday, October 29 when the Ladies of the Youville Auxiliary will hold their annual bazaar and tea. The event, being held in the Youville Auditorium from 2 to 5 p.m. will feature many booths plus tea and goodies. The ladies operating the various concessions are offering for sale a wide assortment of clothing, fancy work, pastries and the such. Everybody is welcome to participate in this annual event and help raise funds for auxiliary projects and senior citizens comforts Citizens are reminded that the "daylight-saving" period is drawing to a close and time pieces will have to be moved "BACK" one hour after midnight October 29. So, if you want to be in step with the rest of the world, be sure to turn your watch back one full hour anytime after midnight October 29, thus you'll be in tune with everyone else.

Inflation is so bad that when a teen-ager drove his jalopy into the station and asked for a dollar's worth of gas, the attendant sprayed a little behind his ear.

Library always "gets the book"

Have you got a strange title tucked away in your mind which you saw once years ago and have been looking for it ever since? Or perhaps there is a book you need urgently and cannot locate it anywhere locally. Then you need help! And your local public library has the help you need—interlibrary loan service.

The St. Albert Public Library can loan free of charge almost any book in the libraries of the world. If a book is requested at the town's public library which is not in the collection then the request can be forwarded to the Extension Department of the University of Alberta who, with over 85,000 volumes, may have it. If not, then they pursue it with Cameron Library and the Edmonton Public Library, either of whom may have the desired title. If they do not, then the request can be sent to other libraries in the province and if this still does not produce the desired book, then the libraries of the neighboring provinces, and eventually the National Library of Canada are tried. After exhausting our national sources the request is forwarded to the libraries of the United States and Britain and even further until it is found. Then it is sent to the first library to fill the local patron's need.

Of course if the patron knows where the necessary book can be located then much of the detective work is by passed and the book is sent on request.

So although our local library looks small, like an iceberg there is much more that is not immediately apparent. The interlibrary loan service puts the book resources of all of Edmonton, all of the province and all of the continent at the fingertips of its members!

Principal to small boy: "It's very generous of you, Francis, but I don't believe your resignation would help our crowded school situation."

Really Upset

The Editor:

I was really upset after reading the article of Oct. 18th about the Western Bus Lines. It shocks me to know that some of the people in St. Albert could be so simple minded. If many people agreed with that article, I am ashamed for this town. As for your statement of the bus being a reject, did any of you give any help to get a better bus? I doubt it!!!! Have you ever been late to pick someone up or even just late? There's always a good reason isn't there? Most trips the bus makes are usually empty, except at rush hour, or Saturdays when everyone is going downtown. The rest of the trips are empty. Is it worthwhile for the trip? If the driver refused to let you on because it was full and they could not allow you to stand, you would probably complain about that and say, well I can stand.

If the heater happens to be on in the summer don't just sit there like a zombie, tell the bus driver he will turn it off, he probably doesn't know it's on. If the windows are dirty it was probably muddy out and they were in such a hurry trying to be on time to please you they didn't have time to wash them. The bus may be falling apart, but they are running in the hole now with what they charge, how can they fix it out? The school kids get cut rates and be thankful for that.

You must have been thankful we had a bus service if you rode it so don't complain, they are now talking about cutting it out completely. Your wish may come true now. Start Walking!!!! Open your eyes and your wallet you may feel better for it!!!!

If you print my letter thank you because I am very thankful for your bus system,

CEC

Students Get Bouquet

The Editor:

On Friday, October 13, 1972, Emergency Health Services staff (nursed a successful Community Health Director Plan Exercise, involving the Sturgeon General Hospital and the Town of St. Albert. Much of the success of the exercise was due to the support provided by you in allowing students from the St. Albert High School to act as casualties of the contrived disaster, - and as stretcher bearers, hospital guards and other resource people to support the Sturgeon General Hospital.

We acknowledge your assistance and would appreciate our thanks being conveyed to those participating students for their excellent portrayal of their simulated injuries. This was a difficult task and they did it well. Our thanks, too, go to the students who acted in those other capacities so necessary to allow the hospital staff to provide the proper medical and nursing care the casualties would require. They performed these responsible roles with integrity and enthusiasm. A special thanks to Mrs. M. Shandro and her staff who provided the nourishment to sustain the simulated casualties and those who made them up. It was service with a smile. It was a distinct pleasure for members of Emergency Health Services and Emergency Measures to have been associated with all the young people of St. Albert who participated so earnestly in unfamiliar roles to assist in this exercise.

The Editor:

Every four years we get a chance to vote for a better living some people do it 'cause they should some do it because they could some do it and feel romantic some with ideas quite frantic but how many do it because something is at stake maybe the country's fate. And Pierre and David and Bob do they only think: O what a good job? If the last one didn't do too well there is another guy and he looks swell (at least at the first glance) again:

He has worked with RCA, Fleetwood-Sylvania, Electrolux and is a former employee of Veterans Appliances in Edmonton.

"A repair shop for television sets, stereo, P.A. systems, tape recorders, etcetera is a needed service here," said Fred, "and I believe this business has an excellent potential in St. Albert."

To begin with the business will concentrate on prompt and efficient repair work, and later on plans are to add related retail lines as their potential can be assessed.

Pembina P.C. Candidate

The Hollands family thrives on a happy relationship, both at home and in business. Dan Jr. is married and has become a partner in the Hollands livestock feeding enterprise at Ardrossan. He handles much of the business, leaving Dan with freedom for other pursuits. Daughter Judy, a bank teller, lives at home.

Dan Hollands, Progressive Conservative candidate for Pembina, operated a farm before starting his livestock feeding business. He knows, from experience the frustrations of past eastern formulas applied to western agricultural problems. Dan wants to reverse the cost-price squeeze which is strangling the small farmer. He wants to find new world markets for ALL our agricultural products. And he supports the P.C. proposal to appoint a grain transportation controller.

Economic mismanagement is at the root of ever increasing inflation. And the Trudeau formula of deliberately creating unemployment has made the matter worse. The personal income tax increases scheduled for January 1st, must be stopped, and additional tax reductions made, to put more money in the hands of consumers. This would mean increased demand, increased production, less need for a high per-unit profit, and at the same time, would create jobs. It's a P.C. promise.

Dan Hollands stands for one Canada, based on equal rights, equal responsibilities and equal consideration for the problems of every province.

Pembina Liberal Wants West To Be Heard

Can John Borger make a difference? That's a question he asks himself as he strides through the closing days of the October 30 federal election campaign on the way to what he hopes is a new job.

John Borger, 38 year old citizen who believes his major obligation is to serve, has virtually completed his campaign for election as a Liberal Member of Parliament in the Pembina constituency.

"Politics has been in the back of my mind for the past 10 years," he said, "and I feel I am ready now."

"I am finally at the place where I feel independent enough to go to Ottawa. I'm answerable to nobody but my electorate and my own conscience and that's the attitude with which I propose to work for the Pembina constituency."

"It's doggone hard to win this constituency," he says. "Maybe it's the toughest one in Canada."

"Half of our 55,000 voters live on farms and one third are in the Edmonton area of Ottewell or in Sherwood Park. How to represent them all, that's the question."

It's a big constituency and a big job, but that's nothing new for John Borger. As a teacher, in his church, in professional sport and as a coach of young men, he has faced tough jobs since he was born on a homestead near Lymburn, Alberta, in the Peace River area where his parents settled after immigrating from Russia. His parents still live on their farm. Such a beginning gave John Borger an understanding of the needs of farmers.

Twice each week, his campaign officials discuss the campaign with Liberal headquarters in Ottawa. He has held many conferences with leading Western figures including Agriculture Minister Bud Olson and Pat Mahoney, Canada's Secretary of State.

In most areas of his constituency, John Borger has made it plain that he thinks Westerners are wrong to expect Eastern Canadians to solve western problems.

For the past two years, Liberal MPs and senators of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have worked within a Prairie caucus that meets each week in Ottawa to discuss problems specific to the Prairies.

Throughout the 60 days of this campaign, John Borger has heard Pembina residents complain the west is neglected by the federal government.

"That has to stop," he says. He plans to help stop it.

Bruins lose to Bears in hard fought opener

Last Friday night before a large crowd of over 500 fans, the St. Albert Bruins Junior Hockey Club dropped a close 3-1 game to the U of A Golden Bear Juniors.

The game was the official league opener in the new Edmonton Metro Junior Hockey League.

Pre-game ceremonies under the direction of Tom White saw the introduction of players from both teams as well as some distinguished guests.

Bill Parker, executive director of the league spoke briefly on the leagues objectives and aims. Bruin owners, Ron Yanosik and Garth Leask were both proud and nervous. Rene Brodeur represented the Comets senior hockey team while Kinsmen Minor Hockey Chairman Paul Matear represented minor hockey.

The Hon. Marcel Lambert, Federal MP for this riding, had the distinction of dropping the first puck and Ron Yanosik presented it to him.

As expected the Bears appeared to be slightly stronger and held control of the game for the opening period even though it ended a 1-1 tie.

Bears opened the scoring at 8:23 when Bruce Crawford scored from close in on Bruin goaltender Brad Rix.

Rix was tested repeatedly but kept the Bruins in the game. At 16:11 Kelly McAvoy took a pass from Jim McComb and Bert St. Martin and scored from 30 feet out to give the Bruins the tying goal.

Bears didn't wait long to get the winner in the second period when Darcy Lukenchuk took advantage of a Bruin defenseman falling on the blue line to score at 1:45. Both teams received excellent goaltending although Rix fielded more shots. Bears popped in their insurance goal with just 33 seconds remaining in the period to take a 3-1 lead.

Phillips and Glasgow earned assists on the goal.

The third period was scoreless even though Bruins had the man advantage twice.

A total of 19 penalties were called with the Bears taking 10 including a misconduct.

Bruins Doug Ferguson handed out the hardest check of the game midway through the final period when he caught a Bear forward with his head down.

Bears out-shot the Bruins by a wide margin, although the Bruins came on in the final 20 minutes.

Bruins next home game will be this Sunday at 2 p.m. when the Fort Saskatchewan Traders will be in town.

Bruins and Traders hooked up in an exhibition game last Saturday at the Fort with the game ending in a 6-6 tie. Bruins outplayed the Traders throughout the game by a wide margin but a few mistakes cost them the win.

The Bruins took an early 3-1 lead but found themselves losing 5-3 after two periods of play. With only about two minutes left in the game Jan Christensen gave the Bruins a 6-5 lead. At 19:57 the Fort scored the equalizer. Other Bruin scorers were Doug Ferguson, Craig Neeser, Tony Lecuyer, Marcel Tourangeau and Dave Lebeck.

Commercial League starts this week

The St. Albert Men's Commercial Hockey League will start its second year of play this coming Wednesday, November 1 at 8:30 p.m. in the St. Albert and District Arena. Grandin Gulf Teachers and St. Albert Pharmacy. The latter club has replaced National Life Bruins who dropped out.

The league will again operate with six teams, Calgary Power Kings, Kinsmen Warlords, Premier Esso, Grandin Gulf Teachers and St. Albert Pharmacy. The latter club has replaced National Life Bruins who dropped out.

Ken Pollon of the St. Albert Sportshop will be the new president while Dennis Limoges of the Post Office has taken on the secretary treasurers chores.

League scheduling calls for 15 games each with games to be played Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Wednesday games start at 8:30 while Monday and Thursday are at 10:00.

No body-checking or slapshots are permitted. Players participating in the league will not be allowed to play with any other team. Players must be 21 years of age or older.

Local Fire Chiefs Drop Nelson Contest

St. Albert Fire Chiefs bantam hockey team gave Nelson Radiator, a city double A team, a solid run for two periods at Coronation Arena on Sunday afternoon before running out of steam and dropping a 7-3 decision.

St. Albert jumped into a quick 2-0 lead in the first period, but Nelson came back to tie it 2-2 before the session closed.

The second period was scoreless, both teams missing on several close-intries.

In the third, it wasn't close for long. Two bad clearing passes gave Nelson two quick goals and before the period was five minutes old, Nelson was nursing a 6-2 lead. Things tightened up after that, however, with the teams swapping goals the rest of the way.

Donald Tobin and Brad Sinclair scored for Fire Chiefs in the first period. Barry Kane scored the last Chiefs' goal.

Comets name new coach - 1st action Friday

Rene Brodeur, president and secretary-treasurer of the St. Albert Comets senior hockey team announced today that Gary Checknita will be the new coach.

Other front office positions have Dave Lewis as manager and Pete Kostyniuk as trainer and equipment manager.

GARRY CHECKNITA

Checknita is no stranger to local fans, as he was the playing coach of Ray's Esso last season. Gary played all his minor hockey in the Knights of Columbus system in Edmonton graduating to the Edmonton Oil Kings. He also played junior hockey with the Regina Pats. Following his junior career Gary played senior hockey with the Lloydminster Border Kings, who were Western Canada Intermediate A Champs, two of his three years on the club.

During his 10 year senior A playing career Gary came up with seven league scoring titles, plus many most valuable player awards. He also was a playing coach of the Vegreville Rangers for three years leading the team to three championships. Last year with Ray's Esso he guided the team to a third place finish, losing to champion Stony Plain Eagles in the semi-finals.

Manager Dave Lewis is also well known to Comet fans as he looked after their timekeeping chores last year. Dave is manager of Old Dutch Potato Chips in Edmonton and resides in St. Albert with wife Joan and son.

Pete Kostyniuk is the new trainer and also is no stranger to senior hockey followers. Pete is also an Old Dutch employee.

President Rene Brodeur feels the new Comets have come up with a very strong entry in the Edmonton Central Hockey League. Comets finished in fifth spot last year.

Veterans Jim Read, Al Laplante, Rich Perrault, Norm Bohl and John Arnott will be some of last years players back and are all looking eager to a great season. Laplante will also help Checknita in coaching as well.

Old pros, Joe (Silver Fox) Cassidy and Fred Hesse have retired and their leadership will be missed.

Coach Checknita has some 8 - 10 new players in camp and feels they will give St. Albert a high contending team.

Ex-Oil King, Ted Rodgers is looking well and should provide some strong scoring power.

TED RODGERS

Zane Jakubec is a fine goaltender and has had experience with the Alberta Golden Bears. Jim Jones looks strong on defense, a position he played two years ago with the St. Catherine's Tee Pees of the Ontario Junior Hockey League.

From all reports it appears the Comets will ice a strong team.

Other members of the eight team league are Leduc Oilers, Winterburn Tomahawks, Ray's Esso, Sherwood Park Barons, Stony Plain Eagles plus two new teams - Barrhead Chiefs and Westlock Eagles. Both clubs have always had excellent teams and will add to the league.

Comets first taste of action will be this Friday at 8 p.m. when the Westlock Eagles will play an exhibition game in the St. Albert and District Arena. Game time is 8 p.m. with admission charge for adults $1.25; students 75¢ and children 50¢.

League play begins November 3 when Leduc Oilers come to town.

President Rene Brodeur (right) and manager Dave Lewis are looking forward to an excellent year for the senior Comets.

Harlem Nationals Playing Oct. 27

The Harlem Nationals, masters of basketball and comedy will be featured at Vital Grandin School Friday October 27 at 8 p.m. when they come up against the St. Albert High All-Stars.

If you've seen them before, you know that Raul McKelvy's hoop comics always try to stage a better than ever show. If this is your first time, then you're in for a real treat.

There's no question that the Harlem Nationals are the funniest basketball team Night after night they put on their tremendous show of ball handling, shooting and comedy routines. Some fans like straight basketball, others like comedy. So the Harlem Nationals dish up generous helpings of both.

"Send the fans home laughing and they will be back next year," owner Big Mac McKelvy said early in his career of travelling show basketball.

This policy has paid off. There is a new generation of fan turn out to see these crazy court comics and the demand for their appearance has grown to the extent that requests for games are turned down -- there's just not enough nights during their five months season. The Nationals never try to run away from an opponent. They keep the score close - sometimes too close and if the "local team" gets hot - you see some real basketball - as well as comedy.

There are two opportunities each week for young, and not so young, adults to get some exercise in the form of volleyball, basketball and/or badminton: in Father Jan School on Wednesdays from 8 - 10 p.m. and in St. Albert High School on Tuesdays from 7:30 - 10 p.m. Phone Ron Prior at 599-6844 for information about the Tuesday evenings and Bill Siemens at 599-8229 about the Wednesday evenings.

These are the men who guide the Royal Bank in serving Alberta. Ted McClenaghan, District General Manager, reviews a new project with his right hand men, Bill Yule and Fred Sutherland. Their banking experience totals over 100 years, all of it with the Royal and much of it in Alberta. Ted, a native of Swift Current has 32 years service including a stint opening the Royal's first office in Dallas. Bill, on the right, is a native Calgarian with 39 years of banking in Alberta. Fred has accumulated 35 years service in the West. As representatives of a good corporate citizen, the Royal Bank, they in their turn have, over the years, accepted the challenge of community involvement in many levels. The sound judgement they exercise in their work is reflected in their community endeavors.

In Calgary, where petroleum banking experience is essential we have a recognized authority in Jim Boyle. Jim is an assistant manager of our main branch and has been intensely involved in oil banking for the last 18 years with the Royal. In his leisure, when not engaged in community work, he enjoys fishing and carpentry. A pretty effective fellow.

The Royal Bank

...serving Alberta!

10563 Jasper Avenue Edmonton is the working address of branch manager Paul Lefavre. He started his career with us in High River at 16 and except for service with the R.C.N.V.R., has spent almost all of it in Alberta. Paul practices the "serving Alberta" philosophy in his private life too, where he works for the rehabilitation of the handicapped, as a trustee and financial advisor for his church. He is also a member of two veteran organizations and vice-president of the Edmonton Executive Association. That's involvement.

Evelyn Lebsack is a teller in Hanna. Her decision to join the Royal was influenced by her sister who is also a teller. Evelyn is an accomplished singer who has studied music in Germany and has travelled with the "Living Dimension Singers" throughout the United States, appearing on various television networks. Now settled and married, Evelyn's friendly words and warm smile are familiar to all the bank customers in Hanna.

Mrs. Nettie Selland was our first lady bank manager in Alberta. She manages the branch at 7604 - 144th Avenue, Edmonton. Nettie has served with the Royal in Alberta since 1952 and as a manager for 25 years - the first of a fast growing number of female employees interested in careers in management. Talk about women's lib.

Meet our Dick Jensen, whom we think knows more about oil and gas than anyone in the banking business. Dick directs the Royal Bank's Oil and Gas Department which is located in Calgary. It is the focal point of the banks involvement in oil and gas on a global scale. Dick was born in Standard and has his Petroleum Engineering Degree from the University of Oklahoma. He has been serving Alberta with the Royal for over 12 years. In his spare time he is an executive member of the local Cancer Society and for fun he does trap shooting - at which he is not very good.

Pauline Loo lines them up in Lethbridge. She's a teller at our 621 - 4th Avenue South Branch. Customers like dealing with Pauline because of her easy smile and charming personality. She typifies the enthusiastic young people that the Royal Bank attracts to serve Alberta.

Our expert "in the field" is Keith Swenson and that's not hay. You'll find Keith at any time working with our clients and branch managers or organizing programs, all for the betterment of the agricultural community. It's a big row to hoe. Keith has his degree in Animal Husbandry and has served Alberta's agricultural community, where he is highly regarded, for the Royal Bank since 1967. His vocation carries naturally over into his avocation where he works with 4-H and farm youth groups. Fly fishing is his hobby.

Start On Hotel

Council granted St. Albert Motor Inn (1972) Ltd., a partial building permit at Monday's regular meeting, covering the construction of foundations and structural work to the $1.5 million proposed hotel. This partial permit covers about 25 per cent of the total project and has been issued to give the developer Mr. S. Shapiro the opportunity to start building before winter sets in. In the meantime, council will formulate details for the balance of the development agreement.

Board

one sees at a glance the decrease in enrolment in Grade 1 this year over last by 11 pupils. This fact backs up the theory that births have decreased while the population of St. Albert increases. The increase in enrolment in all other grades, however, excepting Grade 8 accounts for the boost in enrolment in quite a general way across the board. Substantial increases appear in all grades (except 1 and 8), especially grades 2, 3, 4, 5 and 12.

The No. 6 Board has again applied for a grant under the Local Initiatives Program and if the application is successful, as it was last year, a thorough school painting, repair and maintenance program will be undertaken.

Mr. Shapiro also told The Gazette that he wishes to receive suggestions for a name for his new hotel. He would like a short and distinctive name which might have historical significance in relation to St. Albert. "Whoever comes up with the accepted name submission will be awarded a crisp new $100.00," he said. Mail submissions to Mr. S. Shapiro, 6 Valleyview Crescent, Edmonton, Alberta.

Council Roundup

The Teen Centre will receive repairs amounting to about $150. The recommendation came in the wake of a plea from The Movers who complained to council that the Centre was in dire need of electrical switches, outlets, vents, and a wide array of minor repairs in order to make the Teen Centre safe and more comfortable. The recommendation was made by Councillor Kumbourouff and unanimously approved.

Two appeals were heard in relation to the construction of private garages in relation to side-yard minimums. According to the St. Albert Building Code, a five foot buffer must remain between the building and its property line. Both appeals were for a reduction of side yard clearances. After meeting with Council and showing proof, in both cases that neighbors had no objections to the appeals, D. Mills of 11 Garland Place and N. Campbell of 25 Sylvan Drive were both granted permission to proceed with the construction of their respective private garages despite reduced side-yard allowances.

Bylaw 52/72 dealing with zoning of property owned by Lormex Development Ltd. was given first reading and a public hearing has been set for November 20. Lormex Development Ltd., proposes to construct a hotel complex on the present site of Club Moccambo and requires the following rezoning bylaw before building permit can be issued and a development agreement drawn up: That the westerly half of Lot 6 and the southerly 20 feet of Lot 5, Block 2 presently zoned Residential Comprehensive (RX) be rezoned to Highway Commercial (C3); and that the northerly 210 feet of Lot 5 Block 2 presently zoned Residential Comprehensive (RX) be rezoned to Hotel Parking (Chp).

All members of council endorsed the nomination of Councillor J. J. Bakker to serve as deputy-mayor starting with the first committee meeting in November.

Mayor Ray Gibbon questioned the validity of an advertisement inserted in The Gazette of October 11 by the Preventive Social Services Board soliciting for nominations to that board. Mayor Gibbon felt that the advertisers were not giving St. Albert citizens sufficient time to submit nominations, consequently making the nomination exercise unsatisfactory. Mayor Gibbon told council he would look into the matter himself. In the following issue of The Gazette, dated October 18 the advertisement was re-inserted and altered thus extending the nomination deadline from October 16 to October 20.

NFU protests Calgary Power rate increase

EDMONTON - Commenting on the application announced last week by Calgary Power for a rate increase that would cost rural and urban customers an estimated additional average cost of $1.50 per month, NFU spokesman Bill Dasca-vich stated that the National Farmers Union would voice strong opposition to the granting of any such rate increases.

"In light of capital gains and profits enjoyed by power companies operating in Alberta over the years, it is ironic that Calgary Power should argue that the consuming public should subsidize their higher cost of interest on borrowed capital and their other operating costs.

"The NFU has always taken the stand that Alberta should follow the lead of eight other provinces in Canada and assume ownership of the power utilities, so that profits and capital gains could accrue to the people in the province."

Enrolment doubles at Grant MacEwan college

Fall semester enrolment at Grant MacEwan Community College stands at nearly 1,600 including 978 full time students.

This is more than double the 410 full time students who attended classes last year in the college's first year of operation. A breakdown of the enrolment total shows a further 320 students taking credit courses in the continuing education division, 183 in special interest non-credit courses, and 46 students attending parttime.

Grant MacEwan Community College president, John Haar termed the enrolment increase a good indication of the widening acceptance and growing acceptance of the community college concept, still relatively new in Alberta.

"We're serving over 1,500 people. That's not bad for only 14 months of classes," he said. "It says something about the need that exists in this area."

Mr. Haar, who was president of Centennial College in Scarborough, Ontario, the first community college in that province (there are now 22) before coming to Grant MacEwan, says an integral part of a community college is a willingness to accept changes in methodology, both in teaching and in administration.

The multi-campus approach is one such change. Grant MacEwan now has three campuses, adding the Assumption Campus at 97th Street and 107A Avenue, to the Cromdale and Old Scona campuses. It began with Centennial College, which began in a former arsenal now operates from six locations in the Toronto area; a college in Cleveland has 38 campuses.

We're reaching out into the community both geographically and academically, says Mr. Haar.

Students in every program of study at the college do field work in the community. Anyone can audit a course at Grant MacEwan for a nominal fee of $10. A self-study program under the direction of Ted Kemp throws the colleges resources open to anyone who wishes to study whatever he or she wishes on their own terms.

Mr. Haar also said projected enrolment of 1,600 to 1,800 full time students is seen for next year, if sufficient financial support is received.

We won't promise you a good holiday.

Some tour operators paint some very enticing pictures. With promises of long sandy beaches, prompt departures, and first-class accommodations.

And then it turns out that your departure is three days late. Your beach isn't so sandy. And your first-class accommodations aren't so first class.

At Sunflight, we won't promise you a good holiday.

We guarantee it.

Which means:

1. Our flights are on national carriers. Or Canadian Government licenced supplemental carriers like Pacific Western.

2. There are no hidden costs. Any supplementary charges are up front where they should be.
3. What our brochure offers, you get. Like a shower or private bath with every bedroom.
4. Until you depart on your holiday, all money deposited with us goes into a Royal Bank trust account.
5. Your holiday will depart. Or we'll refund your money in full.

Now, we have to mention that it's not a good time we're guaranteeing.

But we figure if we do all that's possible to make you a good holiday, you and the holiday will make the good time. Guaranteed.

Marcel Lambert, Progressive Conservative candidate in Edmonton West, has had a distinguished career in the House of Commons. He served as Speaker of the House, and as Minister of Veterans' Affairs in Conservative governments and later as chief finance critic for the Opposition and chairman of the caucus finance committee. He also regularly serves on many House committees.

a skilled parliamentarian and one of the most knowledgeable and effective members in the House of Commons.

During his years of office, Marcel Lambert has met and talked with thousands of the 78,000 residents of Edmonton West constituency.

Like the voters, Lambert is especially concerned about inflation and unemployment in Canada.

He strongly advocates these Progressive Conservative Policies:

1. That the government authorize immediate supp-

The Liberal candidate from Edmonton-West in the federal election campaign, Mel Hurtig has personally knocked on more than 8,000 doors in the past six months and since time is running short, he has decided to try a new approach in his attempt to meet and talk with all the voters in his riding which encompasses 34,000 homes.

Mr. Hurtig will be walking the constituency over a period of three days. From 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Thursday and Friday and all day Saturday Mr. Hurtig will be accompanied on his trek by a small core of canvassers carrying signs and pamphlets. At "pit stops," he will be joined by his highly visible campaign vehicle, the flag-bedecked Hurtigmobile.

At this point in the campaign, most of the voters are aware of the personal views of the candidates. Mr. Hurtig is now concerned with the priorities of the electors, and by reaching out into the constituency on his walk he hopes to discover what is on the minds of the Edmonton West voters. It is hoped that people who have not yet met Mr. Hurtig will come out to shake his hand, walk a block or two with him and ask any questions they might have.

This Thursday, rain or shine, Mr. Hurtig will walk throughout St. Albert. Friday he covers Londonderry, Steele Heights and Dickensfield areas. On Saturday, October 28, he will be walking the western part of the city which takes in the bulk of the population of the riding.

lementary cost of living payments to Canadian pensioners.

2. The cancellation of the three per cent increase in personal income tax scheduled for January 1973.

3. That a further four per cent cut be made in personal income tax retroactive to July 1, 1972.

4. That a constant dollar base be established for personal income tax to eliminate as much as possible the built-in interest of the government in continuing inflation to yield ever-increasing revenues to government on the same tax structure.

Edmonton-West Social Credit candidate reviewed his party's policies for the Gazette readers this week. Don McLeod issued a statement Tuesday which he feels are the prime issues facing Canada in this federal election.

At this stage in the election campaign, people should be fairly well informed as to the Social Credit Party's proposals for monetary reform whereby the Bank of Canada rather than foreign banks and finance houses will be used to finance the development of the provinces. Also our proposals for our social and economic security program with income tax exemptions increased to $5,000 per couple, $2,500 for a single person and $500 per child; $200 per month pension at age 60, and $150 for the spouse, making a total of $350 per month, and the same basic figures for the disabled.

The above is probably the most important plank in the platform, however, our policies cover a much wider range. We propose three per cent interest rates on new homes, income tax exemptions on mortgage interest and taxes paid for education and municipal levies.

The cleaning up of the environment and pollution control will be monitored closely and funds allocated to design programs to do this.

Other issues that could be subject to a person's personal beliefs and conscience, such as "capital punishment, abortion, etc. would be handled by a free vote of the House across party lines without necessarily being a vote of non-confidence.

Federal elections will be called on a fixed day every four years, unless the government is defeated on a non-confidence motion.

Local girl married in St. Peter's Church

MR. & MRS. GRAHAM

At St. Peter's Lutheran Church, St. Albert, Pastor D. M. Deutschlander performed a double ring service to unite Valerie Ann Katharine, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bender of St. Albert in marriage to Gordon Albert Graham of Edmonton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham.

Walking down a purple carpeted aisle on the arm of her father, to wedding music played by Church organist Mr. Harold Schmidt, her cousin, the bride approached the candlelit altar, to stand with the groom before a Statue of Jesus on the Cross. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride looked lovely and elegant, in her floor length gown of beau de elegance, featuring an empire waistline, with a mandarin collar above an A-line skirt. The long full sleeves were gathered at the wrist into a french cuff. The gown was enhanced on the front and back waist and collar, also on the gathered sleeves with rows of delicate rose and petal lace. A pearl of elegance full train extended from the back waist, and was edged all around with the same rose and petal lace, complimented with a pretty bow at back waist. A full flowing veil of silk tulle, edged all around with tiny delicate lace rosettes fell over her train from a pretty head piece crowned with small satin roses and orange blossoms.

The bride's veil was carried by her three young nephews, Masters Robert McNeil, Trevor Craft and little Jeffery McNeil. She carried a beautiful cascade bouquet of red roses, stephanotis, ivy and rose buds on white satin streamers.

Attendants of the bride were her sister Mrs. Marianne McNeil as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Barbara Dawe, her cousin and Miss Colleen Edwards, her friend. All looked stunning in floor length gowns of beau de elegance in heaven blue. All carried lovely cascade bouquets of two-tone deep pink carnations and stephanotis, with white satin bows. In their hair they wore tiaras of pearl and borallitis.

Little Shauna Craft, niece of the bride was flower girl looking pretty in a similar gown of heaven blue. She carried a white woven basket, filled with two-tone deep pink carnations, stephanotis and a white bow. Master Timothy McNeil a nephew, attended the bride as ringbearer.

The groom's attendants were his brother Mr. Robert Graham as best man, Mr. Robert Wenger, and Mr. David Bender a cousin of the bride. All wore dark suits with ruffled front blue shirts, ushering the wedding guests were Mr. George and Stuart Schmidt of Barrhead, cousins of the bride.

While the couple signed the register, a solo, "Let Us Ever Walk With Jesus" was sung by Mrs. M. Luchow of St. Albert.

To receive their guests the bride's mother chose a dress of blue tulle, decorated with wide lace set in on the sleeves and skirt and her dress was complimented by a two-tone deep pink carnation and stephanotis corsage. Her accessories were in white.

The groom's mother wore a mid pink tulle dress, complimented by a deep pink corsage of carnations and stephanotis with white accessories.

A reception was given at the Purple Dude banquet room by the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with a three tiered wedding cake, made by her sister Mrs. Judith Craft, and arrangements of flowers.

Pastor D. M. Deutschlander said "Grace" and gave Thanks at the dinner.

Master of ceremonies was Mr. Herbert McNeil and a toast was proposed fittingly to the lovely bride by Mr. Orville Craft, both brothers in law. The groom responded warmly.

After an evening of visiting and entertainment, the bride and groom changed at midnight. The bride's outfit was an off-white tulle two piece suit with a purple colored hooded long sleeved blouse with white accessories. Her suit was complimented by an orchid on corsage.

Out of town guests were present from Ontario, the groom's grandfather the only living one remaining, of all eight, Calgary, Red Deer, Barrhead, Jasper Park, Drayton Valley, Edmonton and Germany.

Next day at 3 p.m. an open house was held at the home of the bride's parents, when gifts were shown.

The young couple holidayed in the mountains, and are now residing in St. Albert.

Kambouroff buys motel in Caribou

Rene and Dolores Kambouroff arrived back in St. Albert Friday, after a trip to the caribou country in B.C., which tidied up the purchase of the 99-mile Motel at 100-Mile House, by Mr. Kambouroff.

The town, with a population of 1,200 is about 125 miles northwest of Kamloops on Highway 97, and 40 miles south of Williams Lake. The trading area is estimated at roughly 20,000 and the town is growing rapidly, said Mr. Kambouroff.

In addition to the 20-unit motel, the purchase included a rental cottage, and the Kambouroffs bought a house as well. They will take over in 100-Mile House on December 1st. Daughters Kathy, Grade 12, and Susan, Grade 8, will be going along, but their son, John is staying in Edmonton, and eldest daughter Dawn, recently married, is also in the city. Mr. Kambouroff's resignation from Town Council is expected to be received November 6th, and effective November 13th. He is serving his second term on council, which normally would have expired in October 1974. Under the municipal act, council may or may not decide to hold a by-election.

During his 12 years in St. Albert Mr. Kambouroff was also active in the Lions Club and the Royal Canadian Legion, and was pleased to find he can continue both these affiliations in his new location.

"I am sorry to leave council, said Rene, but the opportunity for this venture arose - and it looked very good. Both Dolores and I are looking forward to seeing our old friends up north, and hope that many of them will visit us in our new home.

Alta. teachers disagree with implications

Alberta teachers disagreed with implications that the public education system is on the verge of a catastrophe and that they are responsible.

The Teachers' Association, in submitting a brief to the Provincial Cabinet Committee on Education, referred to the Worth Report and said it was profoundly disturbed by the implications scattered throughout the report.

The Association agreed that there is room for improvement and that some of that improvement can be made by the teachers.

However, improvements in staffing ratios; learning conditions, curriculum, organization and teacher education have long been advocated by the teachers, but they claim most of the desirable changes are out of their control.

Despite the chilly day upwards of 200 people visited the Hole farm Sunday afternoon, when Ted and Lois were host to a "Meet Mel" outdoor coffee party. A highlight of the proceedings was a goose chase, when Liberal Candidate Mel Hurtig, Mrs. Hurtig, Liberal leader Bob Russell, Mike MacDonald and Dave Estrin, were each given signs on a cord and the race was on to see who could get the sign around a goose neck first. With some encouragement from Lois, the geese co-operated beautifully, and Mel emerged the winner. Gallons of hot coffee and chocolate and stacks of cookies, plus a big bonfire, added to the enjoyment of the afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

Some very special people live in and around St. Albert and many of them enjoyed hot chocolate, homemade cookies and laughter around a bonfire last Sunday afternoon at the Hole Vegetable Farm. Special thanks to Ted and Lois for hosting the event. Thanks to all who stopped by to say Hello and a warm thank you to all the ladies who helped feed the cold but hungry cookie-monsters in the crowd.

Legion Urges Students To Enter Writing Contest

In this century 114,000 Canadians gave their lives for freedom. Like the youth of today they were committed to the ideal of liberty.

The aim of this contest is to relate these sacrifices in war to the freedom we now take for granted. What did it cost? What opportunities and responsibilities does their contribution to human dignity present to us today?

To look for the answer, the local branch of the Royal Canadian Legion has invited the students of both school systems of St. Albert to enter this literary competition.

The competition is not without reward. Prizes will include certificates of achievement presented by the Legion as well as money prizes.

The competition will progress from local to zone to district to provincial levels before ultimately ending up on the dominion final. The dominion finalists will not only receive the top $150 prize, but will be invited to Ottawa at the expense of the Royal Canadian Legion and take part in the National Remembrance Ceremony, where they will represent the youth of Canada.

These are the rules and conditions:

CATEGORY 1

Open to students of senior secondary schools or high schools. Candidates may submit an essay of prose of not more than 800 words, or a poem of not more than 32 lines.

CATEGORY 2

Open to students of secondary schools or to students of grades 7, 8 and 9. Candidates will submit a composition in prose of not more than 500 words, or a poem of not more than 32 lines.

SUBJECT THEMES

Candidates may submit an essay on any one of the following subjects: for the poem, any treatment of Remembrance is satisfactory.

a) Does Remembrance have a message?

b) How would you like Remembrance to be observed?

c) How can young people today make the best use of the peace purchased at so high a price?

Essay and poems entries will be collected from schools not later than December 1st. The two best at senior level and the two best at junior level will be picked and winners submitted to Zone level. Zone will select two winners at both senior and junior level and forward to district level by January 15th. ## Expert stresses value of budget to consumer group

The St. Albert Action Committee of the Canadian Consumers Association held its first public meeting in the Clubhouse.

Mr. K. Weeres, assistant professor of Business Administration and Commerce at the University of Alberta spoke to a small group of men and women on family budgeting. He stressed how important it was to think and plan ahead. Budgeting was a family affair. Very often the people who had no budget found that due to an unexpected expense they would borrow. This was easy but then they continued to borrow and soon found themselves bankrupt. He noted that most of the families that went bankrupt in the past year had only gone into $3,500 debt. A very small amount. Mr. Weeres stressed he was not advising the group how to spend their money but setting guidelines for them. It is up to the individual to make his choice. He felt that everyone would benefit by going home and drawing up a budget for a year ahead.

Following Mr. Weeres talk, the 15 men and women used guidelines to work out together a sample budget, which when completed they realized would require that the wife of the family take a part time job.

The Action Committee

hopes in future to have more interesting speakers like Mr. Weeres. But they need the support of residents. If anything is to be accomplished in the Consumers field it must be done by such groups. A consumer group has power that the individual doesn't. This is the age of Consumerism, with an incredible volume of things and services competing for our dollars.

President of the St. Albert Action Committee is Margo Ancel and any persons interested in knowing more about it are invited to telephone Mrs. J. Symonds at 599-7847.

District Agriculturist Deplores Damaging Stubble Burning Practice

By Wallace Klatt,
District Agriculturist

The last two falls (and later on this fall) great clouds of billowing smoke announced the burning of recently harvested straw.

I examined one field that had just been burned. The soil was like powder, the organic matter (plant residue) was practically nil and the complete field was ripe for wind and water erosion. This field was low in fertility and the estimated drop in productivity was about 40 per cent.

There are three main areas that stubble burning affects. The first is the amount of organic matter that is in the soil. Organic matter is the cement in the soil that keeps it all together. Without it the soil becomes like sand or flour—ready to blow or wash away at the first wind or rain. Continued stubble burning leads to a very unstable soil. Now let's have a little consideration for the future generations who must make a living from that land.

A second reason should strike a little closer to home. Retaining straw on the fields helps to retain moisture.

In an experiment scientists found that a summerfallow field with no straw retained only 21 per cent of the moisture which fell on it. The same field with two tons of straw per acre disced into the soil retained 39 per cent of the moisture. The same field with the two tons of straw per acre just left on the surface retained 94 per cent of the moisture. By working the straw into the soil you can increase your moisture holding capacity by nearly 100 per cent.

The third reason is the amount of nutrients that you destroy. Did you realize that a 60 bus. per acre crop of barley removes 90 lbs. of nitrogen, 25 lbs. of phosphates and 55 lbs. of potash from the soil. A 40 bus. per acre crop of wheat removes 85 lbs. of nitrogen, 27 lbs. of phosphates and 55 lbs. of potash. A 30 bus. per acre rapeseed crop (yas there were some of these around this year) removes 119 lbs. of nitrogen, 36 lbs. of phosphates and 72 lbs. of potash.

Now part of this is removed when you take the grain off. Isn't it rather uneconomic to have the rest go up in smoke, they pay out more money to put these same nutrients back in the

M.D. Issues Order Regarding 'Burning'

By Wallace Klatt,
District Agriculturist

The MD of Sturgeon has advised that any person wishing to engage in open burning (stubble, straw, dried grass, trees, bush piles, etc.) shall first obtain permission from the appropriate land authority, namely the Councillor from the specific area or from the appropriate fire warden. However, where straw burning is concerned the permit to burn will be obtained from the Municipal Fieldman.

Soil Testing Time

By Wally Klatt,
District Agriculturist

This is the time of year to have your soils analyzed to determine what type and quantity of fertilizers will be required for the 1973 planting. Ensure you take a representative sample in order that you get the applicable analysis.

If you have two soil types, then send in two samples, etc. Additionally a sample containing the first six inches of soil should be separate from that containing the six to twelve inch depth. The cost of the analysis is $2 per sample and should be sent along with the samples to the Provincial Lab, O. S. Longman Building.

If you require sample boxes, bags, and instructions, then contact our office in Morinville.

soil next spring?

The preservation of straw and incorporating it into the soil significantly helps in preserving the soil in all respects -- so why burn it?

Villeneuve

By Margaret Borle

Six ladies of the Villeneuve CWL spent one day as volunteers at the Marian Centre in Edmonton. Mrs. Cyril Borle reported for the group which also included Mrs. Gilbert Soelaert, Mrs. Maurice Verstrete, Mrs. Rene Victor, Mrs. George Soelaert and Mrs. Pat Sheehan. Any donations of garden produce and particularly mens' clothing is urgently needed. Mrs. Borle highly recommends that the CWL continue giving one day a month in this worthwhile work.

Mrs. Wm. Oulmet drove our president Mrs. Pat Sheehan, Mrs. Cyril Borle, Mrs. Felina Borle and Mrs. Andre Borle to Edson on October 3 to attend a regional CWL conference. A large group heard inspirational talks by diocesan president Gerlie Sivik, by Family Life Education convener Dot Keats, by past-president Mrs. Beaudry, Mrs. Timperly and Mrs. Borgstede. A speaker from "Family Courts" addressed the afternoon session. The dedication of the speakers to

Wife: "Wake up George, there's a burglar going through your pockets!"

Husband: "Leave me out of it. You two go downstairs and fight it out yourselves."

Hubby (looking over a pile of bills): "You're driving me to the poor house."

Wife: "I can't dear. The finance company took the car this morning."

human welfare could not help but inspire those who attended.

Two new parishioners have been added to our community, Michael Donald, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Victor and Estelle, newly welcomed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Belanger. Congratulations to the Victor and Belanger family.

We are sorry to hear of Danny Joe Lema's confinement in the hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lema were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oulmet in Vancouver and both couples proceeded on an extended tour to California and Reno, Nevada. Mr. and Mrs. Lema visited their daughter Angela, their son-in-law Roger and little grand-daughter, Shelly. The Lema's report a wonderful holiday.

Do not forget our annual fall supper to be held at the Villeneuve Community Hall, October 29. Supper will begin at 5 p.m. to be followed by family entertainment until 11 p.m. Bring your family and friends and enjoy yourself at this annual outing.

The brief snowfall on Saturday didn't affect the hungry crowd who came out for Namao's Annual Turkey Supper to once again make it a tremendous success. The CGIT girls had a booth and sold candy, fall bouquets and cards. The Happy-ette Club raffled an Electric Coffee Pot which was won by Mrs. Margaret Bell. The UCW extends their thanks to all who helped especially our 4H girls who so ably assisted serving.

Joan and Gunnar Okerman gathered at their home for a surprise party on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday, October 14. ## Rock Fluff Quotes

The following clippings from the paper Rock Fluff, published at Clinton Creek, N.W.T., were sent along to us by Liz McLeod of Calahoe:

If a carpenter makes a mistake, he calls it contemporary styling.

If a garage mechanic makes a mistake, he charges for six more hours at $4 an hour.

If a lawyer makes a mistake, he tries the case again at double the fee.

If a judge makes a mistake, it becomes law.

If a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it.

If a minister makes a mistake, nobody knows anything about it anyway.

But if an Editor makes a mistake -- OH BROTHER!

The Conservatives are saying that they have every western farmer's vote already in the bag.

Perhaps they do. As Liberals we can't and don't predict how Albertans will vote. And besides — it's your personal business.

However Liberals in Alberta are asking for the opportunity to send enough members from this province to create a strong positive western influence on the decisions and policies of the government in Ottawa.

The four Alberta Liberals elected last time have spoken out and been listened to. As a result record amounts of prairie grain have been sold and delivered.

The West is strong. You can feel the new strength and confidence.

Calahoo News Namao girl married in Westminster church

By Liz McLeod

The Calahoo Sports Association are hoping there'll be a good turnout at their forthcoming Hard Time Dance, October 28 at the Gazebo. There'll be prizes for the best individual costumes plus a prize for couples also.

At the show for the kiddies that was held on October 21st there wasn't a good enough turnout to break even. Ten ladies made up plenty of popcorn bags which were enjoyed by all present during the good show "The Chocolate Factory." Its certainly hoped the roads will be dry for next time and more folks will attend.

With regard to the recreation program coming up three members of the Sports Club, Mrs. E. Jeanette Patrick, Mrs. E. Ann Berube and Mrs. G. Angie Moellmann have taken a course at Camp He Ho Ha October 20 through 22 to help with same. Mrs. E. Sharon Nault is taking care of registration on October 26 in the Gazebo. Anyone interested should attend.

While visiting with neighbors Mrs. E. Lorraine Berube was happy to have her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Weber come for a visit and be told of the wonderful trip they had east to visit their son and his wife.

Ken Thatcher was home for the weekend between business assignments so his wife and sons Craig and Scott were very pleased as were his mother and dad who have made the original home a very comfortable attractive place.

While home Ken came to visit the Gordon Schmermund's and was sorry to hear Gordon isn't well and presently is in Stony Plain Hospital, but we're all hoping he'll be out and well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Halle of Morinville had a pleasant visit with Emelia Schmermund and sons Barry and Michael last week.

How nice it is to be remembered by receiving postcards from Richard and Dorothy Arndt who are holidaying in Hawaii and from a Wabamun WI member Mrs. Nessa Watt who is vacationing in Jamaica.

Melina Paquette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe St. Louis from Picardville were most welcome visitors and their young grandson Emil was so happy to see his grandparents.

Adelard's sister Cecile and husband Charlie Kane and children Perry, Leon and Charlotte, along with their neighbors The DePin-to's enjoyed the day visiting also, but with the farmers busy combining there wasn't that much spare time. Actually there was real good weather, considering the few times it snowed and everyone in this area was able to finish with harvest, barring setbacks with breakdowns and such and on the whole a good crop realized.

Sharon McLeod really surprised her parents with a phone call saying she was coming out October 22 which she did, and left in afternoon for Quesnel, B.C., where she has ventured to Adventure seems her lot and she has found the people friendly during the two months she's been there. Because of her visit we missed an invitation to Lillian McLeod's grandparents at Westlock where the family were gathering, and also missed our precious grandson Cameron Douglas. However Doug and Lillian will soon be moving into their new home at Spruce Grove so won't be so far to go and visit.

Ferdinand Lischewski has been up at his son's place at Jasper helping with some carpenter work last week.

Nancy Christen took her aunt with her into her mother and dad's, George and Betty McLeod's place where a shower party was held for her cousin Yvonne Royer. Was so nice to visit with the 20 or more relatives and friends including Mother McLeod Russell who's just had her 79th birthday last month and still is active and able.

A candlelight marriage ceremony was held at Westminster United Church in Edmonton on Friday, Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. when Karen Florence Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Florence Gibson, Namao and the late Mr. Keith Gibson, became the bride of Mr. Leo Lawrence Tkachuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tkachuk of Edmonton.

Rev. Dr. E. Miller performed the wedding ceremony. Organist was Miss Anne Martindale and soloist

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Gibson wore a full length gown of polyester crepe. The jewel neckline, bell sleeves and full length train were trimmed with white braid lace. The high waistline was accentuated at the back with a small bow. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss

Audrey Gibson, sister of the bride, wore an identical short sleeved dress of a deep rose shade. She carried a bouquet of rose colored carnations and white daisies.

Mr. Douglas Moore of Sherwood Park attended the groom. Ushering the guests were Mr. Robert Pullen, cousin of the bride and Mr. Gene Tkachuk, brother of the groom. The mother of the bride chose a full length gown of blue crepe with silver accessories. The groom's mother wore a long gown of gold crepe with brown accessories.

Following the ceremony a dance and buffet supper was held at the Scandinavian Centre. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Mr. Fred Pasenko, uncle of the groom. A toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, Mr. William Edwards. Music was supplied by the Twilights.

Legal Grads plan exercise on theme "To Sir With Love"

By Lucienne Montpetit

A Hootenanny Mass celebrated by Father Roland Bissonnette at 4 p.m., opened the graduation exercises for 22 graduates of Legal High School for the year 1971-72. Readings from the scriptures were read by Jocelyne Chamberland.

Some 140 persons were present at the graduation banquet which followed. Denis Nault, president of the Students' Union emceed the banquet and the program in very capable fashion. Father Bissonnette said grace and Mr. Robert Holzer proposed a toast to the graduates.

The school gym was most attractively decorated to illustrate the theme "To Sir With Love" program opened with the entry of the graduates.

Denis Nault welcomed the guests and the large crowd in attendance.

As president of the Students' Union Denis congratulated the graduating class of 1972, and stated that tonight was a memorable occasion for a life of memories. It is a time of mixed feelings and emotions. What seemed like an impossible dream has materialized for them. You graduates are now, or soon will be in the profession of your choice. But along with this feeling of accomplishment, there is a feeling of uneasiness at the thought of having to play a role in the challenging world of today, a world that leaves much to be desired. Graduates may the professor you have chosen bring you much success and happiness.

Denis explained the theme "To Sir With Love" indicated that the pupils reminisce in verse I - he goes back to his first days in school, pictures himself coloring, chewing his nails etc. He is now wondering how he can adequately thank someone who has helped him through his school years. In verse

II - the pupil feels sad at the thought of leaving his books and teachers. Hereafter now that his teacher was his best friend, although he did not see this while in school. In the last verse the pupil realizes time marches on and now he is trying to show his gratitude to his teacher for all he's done for him.

Each grad was introduced alternately by Gerald Letourneau and Rita Larose who had pertinent remarks on their achievements, as the graduates were escorted to receive their diploma from Mr. Keane, principal.

The graduates are Corinne Bergevin, Darcy Brissoneau, Doreen Cornelis, Jean Pierre Deslauriers, Adrien Gagne, Anne Kallal, Gerry Krauskopf, Denis Pelletier, Clemence Provencal, Raymond St. Onge, Cecile Van De Walle, Madeleine Blanchette, Cindy Chailfox, Donald de Champlain, Normand Forcade, Guy Garneau, Terry Keane, Denis Letourneau, Delores Prefontaine, Roger St. Jean, Roland St. Onge, Dennis Zilinski.

Mr. Keane brought greetings and congratulations from the teaching staff and said they were proud and happy to celebrate this special occasion with the graduates and their parents who have provided encouragement and help through their school years and he said he was certain that they would still be their to help them, but, that they would be less dependent upon their parents as they go out into the challenging world of today.

Mr. Keane complimented the Student's Union for the fine organization for the graduation.

Mr. Herve St. Onge, chairman of the school, brought congratulations from the board members and the parents to the graduates.

Delightful entertainment was provided when Rita Larose and Patsy Montpetit sang an appropriate selection "The Impossible Dream."

Mr. Joseph Nault deputy mayor, brought greetings and congratulations from the Village of Legal.

Reeve Walter Van De Walle extended his congratulations, on behalf of the MD of Sturgeon.

Valedictorians chosen by the class were Anne Kallal who addressed the gathering in French while Terry Keane spoke in English. Both spoke extremely well.

Guest speaker Mr. Percy Royal, consultant with the Department of Youth on the Family, he is also president of Alberta Association of Social Workers and essentially marriage counsellor in private practice. Mr. Royal said it brought back many memories when he graduated in the old country. My work doesn't really deal with students but nevertheless my main interest is social work and dealing with people as you will have to do when you move out into the uneasy world where values are different, places success and affluence before anything else, he said. Man must have a purpose behind him and he encouraged the graduates to approach their duties with vigor. Mr. Royal ended by wishing good luck to the graduates in their vocational choices.

Mr. Keane assisted by the chairman of the school board Mr. Herve St. Onge, presided with the presentations of the awards. Academic pins and medals to the students of high standing in their respective grade.

The largest scholarship of $250 provided by the school board requires an average of 75 per cent in Grade 12. It was awarded to Anne Kallal. Two other board scholarships went to Terry Keane $125 and $75 went to Dennis Zilinski.

Pins and medals were awarded for the highest marks. Medal and pin went to Anne Kallal, Grade XII.

Pins for high achievement - Dennis Zilinski and Terry Keane, Grade XII matriculation. Grade XII diploma highest achievement - Corinne Bergevin.

Grade XI medal and pin - Bruce Kallal; pin - Sylvia Blodeau.

Grade X medal and pin - Sylvia Charrois; pins - Doris Auger, Paulette Clouthier and Jocelyne Chamberland.

Grade IX medal and pin - Joanne Keane, pins to Cathy Montpetit, Sharon, Judy Stewart. A medallion award to the student with the highest average in Grade IX was awarded to Joanne Keane.

Mrs. Ben St. Martin representing the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion #265 informed the gathering that since the organization hasn't been functioning for the last few years said: our funds are now depleted. We have given awards to the highest Grade 12 matriculation student and Grade 12 diploma and the highest diploma student of Grade 9 for the 10 years. This year instead of awards we chose to present to the school a "plaque" with all the names of the recipients since 1961/62. Since we could not finance awards to this years graduates, we thought we could however, grant them the honor of being remembered on this plaque. It has been a pleasure to donate for such a fine cause and we sincerely hope someone else will take over from where we are leaving. I will call on Anne Kallal whose name will appear for Grade 12 matriculation, Corinne Bergevin, Grade 12 diploma, Joanne Keane for Grade 9.

Mr. Keane joined them on the stage to accept this trophy of remembrance to the Legal School.

The CWL award of $10 for the highest standing in Grade 10 was received by Sylvia Charrois and Grade 11 was Bruce Kallal was presented by Mrs. Madeleine Cornelis. Les Femmes Chretiennes represented by Mrs. Beatrice Maurier presented an award to the Grade 10 student with the highest average in advanced French ABEA to Doris Auger.

Also recognized at the graduation ceremony were three donations which made it possible for a student of the school to attend the United Nations Banff summer seminar. Doreen Champagne a Grade IX student was the recipient. The three organizations that made this possible were the Knights of Columbus, Landing Trail Sub-Local ATA and the Students Union.

The "Twilites" hosted the dance where over 300 people converged, ending the evening on an enjoyable note.

course to be held Monday and Wednesday of each week beginning Nov. 6. The cost will be a maximum of $2.50 (depending on enrollment) including the complete manual for those who pass. For further information you can call Dennis at 256-3523 or Carl Royan at 256-3321.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS
Offering instruction in candle making and numerous ideas for Christmas decorations etc. This course teaches methods that can of course be used the year round with adaption. It will be held the 3rd and 4th weeks of November, probably two nights each week. Watch for definite details a little later

PUBLIC SPEAKING
A Christopher Course in public speaking and self improvement is in the planning stages and will be held early in the new year. This is a well known course and has been held in Morinville previously. Watch for special notices regarding registration details.

"POP-IN CENTRE"
To be held Sunday afternoons at the International Building beginning Nov. 5. This will be a special centre for young people aged 6-10 years. There will be such activities as Arts and Crafts; Minor Games; Story Hour; Sing Songs; Drama, all for the youngsters. So for two hours every Sunday afternoon your young people can "Pop-In" and join the fun. Check the posters for definite time and details.

INTERNATIONAL COOKING
The last time that International Cooking courses were held they were received extremely well and they will be offered again in the new year. About 12 different dishes will be demonstrated, maybe even some really new ones this time. Keep an eye out for more information regarding this.

KEEP FIT
A ladies Keep Fit class will be organized. Do we still have the interest that we had last year? Please indicate to one of the Board members.

The Recreation Board would like to have some feedback regarding these courses and classes that are being organized as it is very difficult to gauge just how many people to expect for any one class and registrations will have to be limited in some areas. We're trying to offer something for everyone but if we do not get any response we will have to cancel some ideas.

The members of the Morinville Recreation Board are: Flo McGlnals, Karen Weston, Trish Seymour, Anne Kryskow, Dorothy Daignault, Harvey Atkinson Maurice VanBrabant, Ron Lambert.

We're waiting to hear from YOU!

STURGEON
The Gazette's energetic and cheerful correspondent for Calahoo can certainly take things in her stride! In a note saying that "it's good to be through combining," she adds that she even got a black eye out of it, while setting up the auger on the combine one windy day. She told hubby Pete to toss the rod to her, and got it smack on the cheekbone. "It's better now and we sure had fun over it anyway" concludes Liz St. Albert correspondent, Shirley, decided upon receipt of this note to stop nagging hubby Ernie about picking up the newspapers.

Morinville has a new fire chief, Mr. Adelard St. Laurent, and his new assistant is Don Found. Retiring chief O'Neil Chevalier has been a member of the Morinville Volunteer Fire Brigade ever since his high school days.

The Red Cross Drive is on, and the ladies who volunteered to canvass the town are most grateful for the cordial welcome, and the generosity of the citizens.

On Monday, November 6, a Red Cross Blood Clinic will be held in the Morinville Recreation Centre. Hours 8 - 9 p.m.

On Monday, November 6, the Morinville Board of Trade will hold its regular supper meeting. Guest speaker will be Corporal Robert Marvin Shepard, of Morinville RCMP detachment.

On Tuesday, November 7 the Senior Citizens will attend the afternoon session of the Alberta Legislature. Mr. Ernie Jamison, M.L.A. will welcome them at the Legislature, and Mrs. Rose Martel will convene the visit to Edmonton. The chartered bus, with Mr. Gerard Pelletier as driver, will leave from the Rec. Centre at 1 p.m. Stops will be made as usual at John Gauthier's and Charles Kieser's before leaving for Edmonton. Any one of the senior group who wishes to come, is invited to register with Mrs. Rom DeTennancourt as soon as possible.

The Rendez-Vous Club met Monday, with 18 members present. Mrs. Louise Billio, president, chaired the meeting. Mayor Arthur Stapleton, read directives received from the federal government, and Mr. Laurent Coulombe from STEP was also present to answer questions. To comply with the desired quota on the executive, four more directors were voted on the executive: Arthur Stapleton, (yes, folks, the old boy is 60 years young); Laura Kieser, Rose Martel and Hector Boissonault. Mayor Stapleton announced that the portable school building would be moved to its new location, on a cement foundation, this past week, to become the Senior Citizens Recreation Centre, (south of the Fire Hall). It was proposed and passed that senior citizens who wish to become members of the Rendez-Vous Club, with voting privileges, would pay an annual fee of one dollar.

Weekly card parties will continue in the town hall basement, until the centre is ready, and all senior citizens are welcome to join.

On Tuesday, November 7 the Sports Association will hold their annual meeting in the Morinville Centre at 8 p.m. Newcomers are cordially invited to come and express their views on winter sports for the coming season.

Morinville was very happy last week to welcome back former business couple and long time residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovide Gosselin from Montreal. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reid, and other old acquaintances.

Last weekend Karen Weston of the Recreation Board, accompanied by Carol Woytkiw and Celine Beland, both taking leaders recreation courses, attended a workshop session at Camp He Ho Ha.

In hospital are Paul Henri Casavant, who underwent major surgery recently and Dale Vranas, who was moved to the Edmonton General and not much improvement is reported to date on his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meunier, who have been visiting in Morinville and district for the past two months, left recently for Red Deer and Vancouver, before going to Southern States for the winter.

Norman Tremblay from Fort McMurray, was a visitor recently.

The Lions Club in conjunction with the Sports Association will be hosting a Harvest Fest in the Arena, Friday, November 3 at 8 p.m. Admission by advance tickets only. Tickets now available from members of both clubs.

Due to the very late harvesting conditions in the district, the Lions began their canvass of the rural areas for Red Cross donations, from now till November 31. Please give so more can Live.
